FOOTBALL TIMBER GOOD THIS YEAR

Make Will Have Sufficient Applicants to Assure Strong Team.

MANNINGTON, July 25.—Preparations are already being made for the football year at Mannington High School. A large number of the graduates last June belonged to the football squad and six men who earned their letters will be absent from this year's team. They are: "Rocky" Arnett, Harold Thomas, Paul Stewart, Edwin McCarnes, who earned his letter in 1921, and Harry Devore, an all-state scholastic of 1921, were graduated with letters of "Matty" Wedell.

Back and quarter back last year, will be out of school, as will Duane Akins, who will be at Morgantown this year. Akins was a substitute linesman last year and will be a regular linesman on this year's team.

Remaining for this year's team will be Captain Jones and Prichard, ends with two years' experience each, and a better pair of wings than will be hard to find; George Hart, the 195-pound tackle who last year won a place on the third all-state team and this year gives promise of landing on the first team; John Gray, the hard half back who, as a freshman, won a place on the team last year and gives promise of being the best back field man ever turned out from Mannington High; Howard Massey, last year's center, with his past experience and added weight will be a tower of strength in the center of the line, and "Cassy" Ryan, of two seasons' experience who is expected to be at the best. Ryan is fast, and is a deceptive runner besides generalizing the team in fine style. Since last year he has added about fifteen pounds in weight.

Charles Rymer, center, is expected to have a great year, and with added weight may give the coach an opportunity to make a shift or two that will strengthen the line. Forest Kendall, a letter man of last year, is expected to fill one of the guard positions and, since he weighs about 175 pounds, will give opponents plenty to do to keep him out of their plays. John Mercer, half and quarter back last year, will again be available for a back field berth.

Of this year's second-string men one of the most promising are Archie Garner, backfield; Glenn Rymer, end; "Fuzzy" Flanagan, backfield; Robert Furbie, end; and Fred Shinn, end.

In addition to these there are several other men from the second team that will give the others a great fight for a berth on the first eleven, and several new men are expected to be in school who may win first team.

Actual training will not begin until September 11, the opening day of school. This delay is due to the rule made last year by the State Athletic Association, forbidding training camps, but everything will be in readiness and the first practice will be held that day. Hard work will be meted out in preparation for the first game with Shinnston on September 30.

THREE-GAME SERIES FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

MANNINGTON, July 25.—Coach Jerry Blake announced yesterday that arrangements have been completed for a series of three games between the American Legion and the "Boys" Club for the city championship. The proceeds of these games to go toward the benefit of the athletic association of the high school.

The games will be staged Thursday, Friday and Tuesday. Tuesday at the games since it will be assisting the athletic association. In that respect it might safely be said that the association needs all the assistance it can get, as it has never been self-supporting.

Letter to the Editor

POSITION ON LABOR
MANNINGTON, July 25.—[Editor: The West Virginian]—Some one has maliciously and falsely circulated the report that I am a stockholder in the D. T. S. Coal Co. I desire to say that I am not a stockholder in that company or in any other company. I do not, neither did I ever own a single share of corporation stock of any kind.

Evidently this report was circulated to reflect upon me as a candidate among the laboring element, and I have made a true statement; and as to my position on labor, every person who knows me, knows my position, as I have always been a laboring man, and if I am elected county commissioner, the laborers shall all be treated fairly.

Golf Girl After Prince; Chances Good, She Says

—Portrait by Tom Culverwell.

MISS POLLY PARR.
Polly Parr of Fairmont avenue, the golf girl, today entered her club-coloured hand in the great matrimonial contest for the heart of the Prince of Wales.

Polly admits her chances are excellent, because she explains, "the Prince is such an athletic chap that we doubtless have much in common."

"Most of the stories about the Prince's athletic letters," she said, "tell of his playing polo, which is almost like golf though not so strenuous, since one rides a horse instead of walking between shots. He does play some golf, for I read he played a match with that Japanese ruler, Prince Regent. Isn't Regent a funny name for a Japanese Prince?"

We told Polly that the Prince's name was Hirohito, not Regent.

"Hirohito? Isn't that too funny? That's what Jock Hutchison says when he dubs a shot."

The more she thought of the future at Buckingham, the more ecstatic Polly became.

"It runs in his family that he should marry a great big vigorous outdoor girl. Look at the pictures of Queen Mary. Maybe it's her clothes that make her look that way, but Queen Mary certainly looks as if she could hit a golf ball a mile."

Polly's right. If the prince decides to select a big sun-browned, moon-mottled, star-spotted girl, Polly has an excellent chance. She is more than typical of the golf girl. Her friends call her the "burly" member of the brassie, which, perhaps, is a bit too vigorous.

But the prince hasn't indicated that he's out for a sport model, manfully speaking. Other girls also have a chance.

SCOUTS LEAVE FOR TWO-WEEK OUTING

Outdoor Sports to Be Feature of Annual Vacation.

MANNINGTON, July 25.—Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, left this morning for its annual camping trip. The camp this year will be located near Rowlesburg on the Cheat River.

Besides swimming and boating, baseball can be played in a level field near the camp. Four tents and a complete camping outfit were carried along, as well as plenty of fishing tackle, since the bass fishing is said to be good. M. Lilleland will do the cooking.

Harry Beatty motored through with some of the boys, and will remain during the outing. He will keep his car with him.

Arthur Prichard, scoutmaster, drove through in his father's car, and will return to Mannington in it Thursday or Friday.

OGDEN'S ADDRESS APPROVED BY ALL

Mannington Voters Hear the Wheeling Editor Speak for Half an Hour

MANNINGTON, July 25.—H. C. Ogden, Republican candidate for United States Senate from West Virginia, addressed a large gathering of voters at the Central School building here last night, leaving immediately afterward for Fairmont where he was scheduled to speak.

F. E. Furbie acted as chairman and introduced William Wiegell, editor of The West Virginian, who dwelt for a few minutes upon the work and life of Mr. Ogden. He spoke of the candidate as a man who had accomplished big things, and would accomplish more if given the opportunity. Mr. Wiegell introduced the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Ogden, who was born in Marion County and spent a part of his early life in Mannington, opened his address with a good word for West Virginia. This state, he declared, has a larger percentage of American born citizens than any other state in the union, a large proportion of them being of the solid, rugged stock which is directly descended from the men who signed the Magna Carta and the Constitution of the United States.

Since his time was short in Mannington, Mr. Ogden plunged into his speech, naming some of the things for which he stands. One of these was the tax reform bill passed in 1904, and which the Intelligencer fought for throughout the struggle to make it a law.

Mr. Ogden declared, in a measure lessened the burden of the home owner and small taxpayer by increasing the assessments of railroads, intangible property such as the leaseholds in southern West Virginia, the property of public utilities, and other privileged corporations.

He pledged to the voters present that if nominated and elected he would use his power to lessen the burden on the smaller taxpayer and home owner by shifting it more to the large corporations, corporations and public utilities.

With regard to his attitude toward labor, Mr. Ogden said he has employed union labor for the past thirty-five years, and in all that time has never had a strike. In all the various business interests with which he is connected, employing in all nearly 2,000 men, the principle of arbitration is carried out with satisfaction to employer and employee.

One other thing which Mr. Ogden stated that he had worked hard to secure for the laboring man was the Workman's Compensation Law, passed in 1917. Next Henry D. Hatfield declared the Wheeling Intelligencer was the most potent factor in bringing about this law.

The life of the child, Mr. Ogden insisted, should be dedicated to health and the home, instead of to mill and factory. With this in mind, he expressed himself as much in favor of regulating child labor so that the youth might not become warped in body and mind through too severe labor when young.

Another subject mentioned as having had his support was state mine inspection. This, he declared, has brought about a much safer condition in the mines of the state, making less likely such disasters as that at Monongah several years ago.

With reference to the tariff, Mr. Ogden declared that he believed the tariff should be higher in the next ten or fifteen years than during the past fifty years, and asserted that he would, if nominated and elected, favor the framing of a tariff high enough that no article could be shipped into the United States at less cost than our factories can produce the same product and at the same time pay a living wage to employees.

With reference to the work accomplished already by the Republican administration, Mr. Ogden stated that $2,000,000 of bonds being sold at eighty-five cents in 1920 are now selling at one hundred cents on the dollar, and that factories and mills running twenty-five per cent capacity in 1920 are now running sixty-five per cent.

Mr. Ogden closed with the statement that "The great Republican party in this country is still the party of idealism and vision, consecrated to service for the American people."

NATIONAL FORCES ROUT INSURGENTS

Additional Areas in West of Ireland Occupied by Free Staters.

DUBLIN, July 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Intense fighting is in progress in the vicinity of Kilmallock, County Limerick, according to reports reaching Dublin today. The reports stated that the Republican irregulars were trying to delay the advance of the national army troops but while a good many men are said to be engaged in the fighting nothing like a pitched battle is apparently possible.

A message from Thurles, Tipperary, filed late yesterday, said an attack by the irregulars was expected there last night as they had declared their intention of taking the town which had been held by the national forces.

Ennon de Valera accompanied the irregulars last Sunday to Tipperary, but according to reports left for Cassef, twelve miles distant, the next day. The straggler recent events is said to have left him pale and wan.

The irregulars are said to have burned the military barracks at Cassef and Tipperary.

DOGS NOT ONLY ANIMALS DOOMED IN CREMATORY

News that there are now about thirty dogs at the city crematory awaiting cremation has stirred the minds of many local people with indignation and words such as "horrible," "outrageous" and "uncivilized" have been used to criticize the city fathers for their action. These very sympathetic people perhaps do not realize that in the last year the bodies of thirty-four horses and nine cows have been burned at the city crematory. It was pointed out today.

The superintendent at the crematory in fact keeps the incinerator fired with wood at all times prepared to make quick disposition of such dogs, cats, horses, cows or any other animals taken to the crematory.

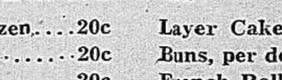

There are many insects which make noises so faint that they are inaudible to the human ear.
